

How well do the charts in each cluster make-sense to you?

To what extent does the clustering reflect your intended goal?

How creative or innovative do you find the clustering approach?

How logical is the drill-down order of the charts?

How cohesive is the overall sequence of charts?

How easy is it to follow and understand the chart sequence?

How likely is the overall sequence of charts?

How informative are the captions?

Are the chart types appropriate for the information presented?

Are the captions concise and free of unnecessary information?

How fluent is the language used in the captions?

How insightful are the captions to enhance your understanding?

Is the grammar in the captions accurate and professional?

